Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find Forms SS-1a and SS-1b for Employer's Tax Return of the Newark Eagles Baseball Club for the second quarter ending June 30, 1942, also a check in the sum of $147.52 in payment of taxes for this period.

Very truly yours,

P. S. You will note on this Report that there are several Social Security numbers missing. I have been trying to get these for the past month, and I have the assurance from Mr. Lawrence, the Secretary at Ruppert Stadium (where these employees work) that he will furnish me with the numbers as soon as he is able to get them, at which time I will be glad to send them to you.
